Doors open at 7:30 pm

Happiness in a Storm: Embracing Life as a Healthy Survivor

Wendy Harpham, MD, FACP

8 pm

Wendy S. Harpham is a doctor of internal medicine, best-selling author, long-term cancer survivor and mother of three. Diagnosed with non-Hodgkins lymphoma in 1990 and forced to redefine her career, Dr. Harpham turned to writing as a way to continue to educate, comfort and inspire others. She has written six books for patients and their families.

Copies of Wendy's books will be sold and autographed that evening:

- Happiness in a Storm
- After Cancer
- Diagnosis: Cancer
- When a Parent Has Cancer

When the (Other) Shoe Drops: Finding Your Way Forward

Jessie Gruman, PhD

8:30 pm

Jessie Gruman is the founder and president of the Center for the Advancement of Health, an independent, nonpartisan Washington-based policy institute. Since 1992 the Center has worked to ensure that people are able to meet the demands placed on them by complex health information, health professionals who are increasingly specialized and pressed for time and health care that is effective but chaotic.

Copies of Jessie's book will be sold and autographed that evening:

- After Shock: What to Do When the Doctor Gives You—
Or Someone You Love—a Devastating Diagnosis
